Terms of Use

Zataa Story Uploader · effective 16 October 2026 · Privacy Policy

Zataa Story Uploader ("the app") is an internal tool of Zataa (zataa.my.id) used only by the owner of the YouTube channel Zataa Story to upload and manage the channel's own Shorts.

YouTube Terms of Service

The app uses YouTube API Services. By using the app, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service.

Use of the app

- The app only uploads videos after the channel owner approves each one, with the title, description and visibility (public, unlisted or private) chosen by the owner.
- Content uploaded through the app must respect YouTube's Community Guidelines and third-party rights; images used in videos are public-domain or openly licensed and are credited in the video description.
- Access can be revoked at any time at Google security settings.

Privacy

See the Privacy Policy, which also references the Google Privacy Policy.
